NEWS OF THE CHURCH ALIVE

“PRAYING FOR CHILDREN”

(MOMSINPRAYER.ORG):

Ready... Set... Pray! We will resume meeting for the new school year on Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. If you have a prayer concern for your children and/or their schools, please email Laurel at hlporter20@yahoo.com or join us any Tuesday, at 1:00 p.m. in the library. All prayers are confidential, and all are welcome! Every child and every school needs a praying Mom, Grandma or friend!

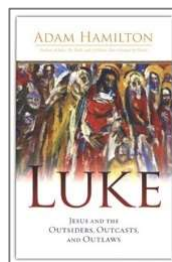

STEPHEN MINISTRY:

If you have an immediate prayer need, contact the on-call Stephen Minister listed below. Please note this is meant to supplement, not replace, the prayer line, which offers long-term, ongoing prayer. Our goal is simply to offer the important ministry of one-on-one, confidential conversation and prayer as the immediate need arises. We can visit with you by way of phone calls, virtual connection, or social distancing. For this week, the on-call Stephen Minister is Phyllis Carr. She can be reached at 814-763-3926.

Communion Education for Youth – Today

Rev. Corll will be instructing youth grades 3 through 8 about the sacrament of Communion during the Sunday School hour (9:30 a.m.). This is a tradition that had taken place for years in our church. Parents and eligible youth should have received a letter inviting the children and parents to attend.

Luke: Jesus and the Outsiders, Outcasts, and Outlaws. Jesus came to lift up the lowly. In the Gospel of Luke, a first-century portrait of Jesus, we find stories of Jesus’s ministry with ordinary, unexpected people. They weren’t perfect. Whoever they were, Jesus brought the good news of God’s kingdom to those who most needed to hear it. That includes you and me. Please join us today in the Culbertson Room at 9:30 a.m. Pastor and best-selling author Adam Hamilton explores the life of Jesus as told in the Gospel of Luke.

An early invitation to take part in our Advent Devotional Booklet is extended to all. The Stephen Ministry requests devotional meditations for an annual Advent Booklet each year. For over ten years, members and friends of the church have offered their thoughts and meditations for the booklet. The theme for 2023 is “Sentiments for a Sacred Season”. You are invited to reflect on what Advent and Christmas means to you and create a write up for the devotional. Deadline is November 3, so that it can be compiled and ready for distribution for the Advent Season (December 3-December 25).

If you would like offering envelopes for 2024, please notify the church at 814-333-2161 or drop a note in the offering plate. We will be ordering envelopes in October.

THE WINS PROJECT: Thank you for your generous donations. Please continue to save clean, intact plastic grocery bags (but not from the Wine and Spirits store) at home this summer. There is a collection bin across from the church office.

PRAYER REQUESTS

THE PRAYER LIFELINE is available to pray for your joys and concerns. Call the church office at 814-333-2161 to make your request. You can also e-mail Laurel Porter at hlporter20@yahoo.com. All requests will be kept confidential.

Librarian’s Picks for October: “Stop at the Library Table and see what’s new. Or come inside the Library and check out all the inspirational and Biblical study selections that are available. Don’t “Leaf” without a good book or DVD.

Our next Soulstice gathering will be on Wednesday, October 4th at 7:15 p.m. Join us in the downstairs chapel for a time of music, prayer, and silence.

Mission Study Committee update: The congregational surveys have been mailed out. If you have not received yours, please contact the Church office as soon as possible. There is a large, stamped envelope, included in your packet for you to insert your completed surveys. The return envelopes are labeled to return to JL Nick Consulting and should be in the mail no later than Monday the 18th of September. Once the survey opinions are compiled and analyzed, JL Nick will deliver the results to the committee for explanation. These results will then be made available to Session and the congregation. Shortly after this process is completed, the Mission Study will complete our work and with Session approval deliver our study to Presbytery for approval. We will continue to keep you updated on our progress.

Do you have the gift of being welcoming and hospitable? Then we would love to have you greet our members and visitors on Sunday mornings. If you are able, please call the church office at 814-333-2161 or write on your attendance card that you would like to help in this ministry.
